

NEW ENGLAND NORTH WEST LANDCARE

REGIONAL UPDATE

Issue 77, 1st March 2013

CARING FOR THE ENVIRONMENT? YOU DESERVE AN AWARD! Prime Minister's Environment Awards now open.

Every day, thousands of people across Australia are doing incredible things to protect our environment and create a truly sustainable future for our country. To recognise those unsung heroes in our community, nominations are now open for the Prime Minister's Environmentalist of the Year and Young Environmentalist of the Year.

The Prime Minister's Environmentalist of the Year Award is open to individuals, groups or organisations which have made an outstanding contribution to the environment or have worked towards achieving a more sustainable Australia.

For more information go to - www.unaavictoria.org.au/awards-programs/world-environment-day-awards/
Nominations close 22 April 2013.

TREES FOR MUM

Trees for Mum is a series of Mother's Day memorial tree-planting events, originally created for members of the community whose mothers had passed away. The events have since evolved into celebratory tree planting events for all mothers and take place annually on the second Sunday in May – Mother's Day in Australia.

If you are planning on hosting a Trees for Mum event, please be sure to email your event details to admin@treesformum.com and events@landcareaustralia.com.au to ensure that your event is added to the national Trees for Mum events calendar. More information on Trees for Mum is available from www.treesformum.com or through its Facebook page.

9TH BIENNIAL BUSHFIRE CONFERENCE 4-5 JUNE 2013

This conference will explore the role holistic fire management can play in sustaining healthier landscapes and investigate ways to build cohesive communities which are more connected to their local environment in a changing climate.

BEE FRIENDLY: A PLANTING GUIDE FOR EUROPEAN HONEYBEES AND AUSTRALIAN NATIVE POLLINATORS

The Australian honeybee industry provides essential benefits to agricultural, horticultural and urban environments through managed and incidental pollination services.

Planting herbs, shrubs and trees for honeybee nutrition offers major benefits to the industry and society. This guide

CARING
COUNTRY

Send your news for the Landcare Update to Sarah Legge at sarah@gwymaucklandcare.net.au describes planting choices from the backyard to the bush, right across the nation, and will assist with increasing available bee food. Individuals, gardeners, municipalities, government land management authorities and farmers can make a difference.

This guide gives ideas and choices of species to bring about improved outcomes for honeybees and the Australian pollen- and nectar- using fauna, including mammals, insects and birds.

WIN AN IPAD MINI

Take part in Landcare Australia's social media survey and go into a draw to win an iPad mini.

Did you know that 75% of Australians now use some form of social media, and over 50% of the population is signed up to Facebook?

Social media is all about communities – online communities. Just as Landcare is one large community of grass-roots volunteer groups and individuals made up of thousands of smaller communities, social media is about hundreds, thousands and millions of online communities with shared interests who interact with each other on a daily basis.

Landcare Australia actively uses social media to engage with and raise awareness of the Landcare community, and want to find out how to help Landcare groups and networks further engage with social media and use it to share stories with the wider community.

Visit the Landcare Australia website for more information – www.landcareonline.com.au

2013 COMMUNITY LITTER GRANTS

The Community Litter Grants are being managed by KABNSW in partnership with the NSW Environmental Protection Authority, and will enable community groups to tackle litter in local neighbourhoods.

The grants process has 2 stages. Stage 1 – Local Litter Check

The collection of data using the Local Litter Check will help community groups identify the best actions to tackle litter in a chosen litter hot spot. Please note, only groups that complete Stage 1 and return their data will be eligible to apply for a grant. Groups who send KABNSW completed data will be reimbursed $300. Stage 1 Applications close Tuesday 2nd April 2013

To download the entry kit and for further information go to – www.kabnsw.org.au
